5) A draft to the D.C, calling for the return of the petition with G. Venkatalamaiah, Sent to him for reply is pulup. as the Same has not been received back

B.T. 22/12/37 6) The original petition, with connected records, were received back from the R.I's Office today, and the Same is submitted. It is reported that the Survey Numbers referred to by Sh. Venkatalamaiah in his petition, are Brahmadaya Inams purchased by him in 1917, except in the case of Survey No 65/1 and that the encumbrance even in the latter case is only the transfer of the land to the Ramakrishna Ashrama by a Trust Deed executed by him in June 1927. The D.C Bangalore has recommended

Serial No.

Sanction to the conversion of these lands to Dharmadaya, treating the present Jodi and quit rent as Jodi. The M.C has supported this proposal and Commissioner requested Sanction thereto.

7/ The recommendation of the M.C to convert the Brahmadaya lands to Dharmadaya is submitted for orders. It is a question of converting the tenure of the lands from Brahmadaya inam to Dharmadaya inam. It is a point for orders whether the case may therefore be transferred to the Revenue Branch.

2) From the references in the Inam Office the following particulars are furnished in respect of the "Personal" Inam lands proposed for conversion into "Dharmadaya" tenure.

Kind of Inam.	S.No.of the Inam Land.	Name of Holder.	Titledeed No.under which the Inam is held.	Enfranchised or not.
Personal	92 94 & 109	1.Seenambhatta 2.Krishnabhatta 3.Subbarayappa	590 593	(1) Enfranchised
-do-	93 65/1	Krishnabhatta	591 594	(2) -do-
-do-	65/2	1.Hazrath Gopaliah 2. " Subbiah	588 1048	(3) -do-
-do-	71 72	1.Nanjundiah 2.Sankariah	594 1089	(4) -do-

3) In respect of Titledeeds, Serial Nos. 1, 2 and 4, noted above the entire extent of lands held under these different title-deeds has been proposed for conversion. But in respect of Sl.No.3 under which two S.Nos., No.21(Dry 4 Acres and 14 Guntas, Assessment Rs.7-8-0) and 65/2 (wet 0-43 guntas, Assessment 1-12-0) are held as Inam, the latter Number only is asked for conversion.

4) It will be seen from the above particulars that the lands have been granted under several titledeeds to different persons and are personal and enfranchised Inams. Mr.G.Venkatramaniah has perhaps purchased the lands in question from the original holders and gifted them according to his letter dated 16th November 1936 to the Sri Rama Krishna Matt under a registered deed dated 15th April 1923.

15 Rule XVII of the Inam Rules enjoins that "Inams once converted into a permanent and alienable property under the rules will be subject to no further interference on the part of Government except such as may be necessary for the punctual realisation of Quit-rent now charged or the existing Jodi thereon".

16 The proposed conversion if sanctioned, will, of course, not result in any loss of revenue to the Government and it is possible that it will also ensure the permanency of service. But the position re: the change of tenure is extremely doubtful. In view of the principle enunciated in Rule XVII referred to above it does not appear possible or correct to sanction the change of tenure of an enfranchised personal Inam land into an inalienable and non-heritable "Devadaya" or "Dharmadaya" land at the request of a private party. It has to be further remarked that in respect of title-deed No.588/1048 under which two survey numbers 21 and 65/2 are held but only the latter number is proposed for conversion into "Dharmadaya" the case has to be settled de-no-vo with the result that S.No.21 will have to be confirmed as personal Inam with the proportionate Jodi and Quit-Rent under a fresh title-deed. The land is not now at the disposal of the Government for being re-granted as Devadaya or Dharmadaya; and it is not competent to a private party to grant a Devadaya or Dharmadaya Inam.

n the circumstances, it is doubtful if a mere conversion of these Inam lands as "Devadaya" or "Dharmadaya", in the accounts, will have the effect of altering its inherent character of a personal Inam in view of the holding by the Muzrai Commissioner, in Muzrai Appeal No.P.C.574 of 1929-30 confirmed in Government Muzrai Appeal No.1 of 1934-35, that an endowment to a temple not originally granted by Government cannot be recognised as "Devadaya" Inam.

The President of Sri Ramakrishna Mutt, Basavangudi, Bangalore City, in his letter dated 6-3-1939 to the Amildar, has informed that their Headquarters have expressed their unwillingness to the Ashrama being treated as Muzrai Institution, but that they have no objection to the properties endowed being treated as Muzrai Institution by itself for the said purpose. It is not clear how the endowed lands themselves could be treated as Muzrai Institution; and it seems, therefore, not possible to change the inam tenure from Brahmadaya into Dharmadaya.

SIR,

Conversion of some Personal Inams to Dharmadaya.

With reference to your Memo No.782/Inz.116-36-2 dated 10-12-1936 forwarding the petition of Sri. G. Venkataramaniya on the above subject I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of letter No.35-1009/36-7 dated 11-11-1937 from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, and to state as follows:-

Sri. G. Venkataramaniya states in his application that the following Survey Nos. in Kachanakanahalli, Magadi Taluk, have been enfranchised by him for the benefit of Sri Ramakrishna Ashrama, at Basavanagudi, Bangalore City, and he requests that the inam tenure of these Survey Nos. may be changed from Personal to Dharmadaya.
